MDLB 1991, LABORATORY PRACTICUM - EVALUATION OF NATIONAL COMPETENCIES

Introductory Skill-Training Activities 1 and 2

	STUDENT NAME:
Vaninungtura Ctana	Venipuncture Attempts
Venipuncture Steps	_								I
	Activity 1:								Activity 2:
	Venipuncture training arm									Venipuncture on volunteers
	(6 tii	mes o	r more	e)
		1				(4 times or more)
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	1	2	3	4	5	6
Wash hands.
Assemble equipment prior to venipuncture.
Ensure correct patient identification.
Ensure patient is in a safe and accessible position.
Put on gloves.
Select the appropriate venipuncture site.
Cleanse site, using appropriate disinfectant and technique.
Apply tourniquet correctly.
Perform venipuncture, including:
Anchoring the vein.
Smooth and quick insertion of the needle.
Stillness of the needle in the patient's arm.
<ul> <li>Prompt and appropriate mixing of specimen.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Release of the tourniquet prior to needle removal.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Application of pressure to the puncture site with a clean gauze or cotton swab.</li> </ul>
Dispose of waste materials (including needles) properly.
Perform multiple draws.

OL-MC121377 Page 2 of 2

REASON FOR EXEMPTION: (IF APPLICABLE)
COMMENTS:	_							