

ASSURANCE OF LEARNING (AoL) SUBCOMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

The AoL Subcommittee is responsible for overseeing the strategic assessment of institutional learning and has direct reporting to the Academic Planning and Priorities Committee (APPC) and Teaching and Learning Committee (TLC) of Senate.

COMPOSITION

Chair

- Faculty member (ex officio, voting) to be elected by the AoL Subcommittee.

Voting Members

- One faculty member representative from each of the Faculties and Schools
- One Open Learning faculty member
- One instructional designer
- One Library faculty member
- One Centre for Excellence in Learning and Teaching faculty member
- Associate Vice President Academic
- Quality Assurance and Accreditation Liaison Officer
- Executive Director, Office of Indigenous Education
- Director, Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition
- One dean
- One Registrar's Office representative
- Chair, Teaching and Learning Committee of Senate
- Chair, Educational Programs Committee of Senate
- Two undergraduate students
- One graduate student
- One alumnus

*Nominations to be approved by APPC.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Following broad consultation with Faculties and Schools, advise APPC on the establishment, revision, or discontinuance of policies and procedures in relation to general education curriculum.
- Recommend to APPC and TLC a model of continuous learning outcomes assessment and curriculum review that fits with TRU's culture and established structures and processes, including an assessment plan for TRU's institutional learning outcomes.
- Other duties as assigned by APPC and TLC.