

BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK
APPROVED GENERAL UNIVERSITY STUDIES CREDIT

In order to complete the BSW degree, students must take a minimum of 48 credits of General University Studies from the following approved list. This list is subject to change.

Many of these credits are often taken prior to admission to the BSW program (although every file may be different, admission is often based on General University Studies credits applicable to the degree). You must ensure you are taking the correct General University Studies courses for admission as these credits also apply to degree completion.

Please refer to admission requirements for the BSW program as well as the TRU BSW degree planning sheets.

University transferable General University Studies coursework from other institutions may be considered.
