I. Preamble

The purpose of this standards document is to provide guidance to faculty members as they prepare for applications for tenure and/or promotion. Achieving tenure and promotion through the ranks is based on incremental and accumulative growth of a faculty member in their scholarship, professional role, and service. To merit tenure or promotion, Counselling, Academic Support and Assessment (CASA) faculty members will have their performance assessed for effectiveness in their professional role; recognized scholarly work; and contributions to service within the university and general community as well as to the profession (regionally, nationally, and internationally). These departmental guidelines describe the standards and expectations specific to Counsellors. University guidelines as detailed in the Senate-approved Principles and Essential Features of Standards and Collective Agreement provisions shall guide all such standards and expectations. In particular, applicants should document clear evidence of the following:

- That they have achieved “incremental and accumulative growth” as professionals and/or researchers, and in terms of departmental, university, community, and disciplinary service.
- That they have met “increasing expectations for professional role, scholarship, and service,” recognizing that as faculty move through the ranks, there should be documented evidence of increasing levels of performance in all areas.
- That they have achieved “recognition and assessment by peers at local, national, or international levels,” making sure to employ the formula of “recognition and assessment” as a means of documenting an increasing sphere of influence.
- That their work can be assessed in terms of its quantity, quality, and impact.

Weighting of Tenure and Promotion Criteria

For the Department of Counselling, Academic Support and Assessment (CASA) faculty, the standard weighting of the evidence will be as follows:

	Tripartite	Bipartite
Professional Role	40%	80%
Scholarship	40%
Service	20%	20%

The balance between these categories may differ based on individual circumstances and may vary over an individual’s career. However, for Tripartite faculty the weighting assigned for research and scholarship should not be less than 40%. Similarly, for Bipartite faculty the weighting of the professional role should not be less than 70%. Nevertheless, extraordinary contributions in one of the categories may compensate for lesser achievement in the other categories as long as there has been a satisfactory level of contribution in all areas of responsibility. Applicants must inform their Divisional Promotion and Tenure committee of their preferred weighting at the beginning of the adjudication process.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

The CASA department understands ensuring equity, diversity, and inclusion requires flexibility in the application of these standards particularly with respect to systemic barriers, career interruptions, and special circumstances. Hence the CASA department is committed to recognizing scholarship, teaching, and service contributions in an actively anti-discriminatory way. To assist with this, where it is necessary, candidates are invited to include a Statement of Circumstances within their application. Relevant circumstances may include, but are not limited to administrative responsibilities, maternity/parental leave, child-rearing, dependent care, illness, disability, cultural or community responsibilities, or socio-economic context.

Tenure and promotion committees are strongly encouraged to consider career interruptions and special circumstances in order to more accurately assess affected applicants' records of achievements.

II. Description of Counsellor Position

TRU Counsellors are faculty members who promote and support the personal growth, academic success and career development of TRU students. The specific responsibilities of counsellors are as follows:

- To provide individual, short-term personal counselling for current students
- To provide individual crisis counselling for current students
- To provide educational and career planning counselling for current and prospective students
- To facilitate counselling workshops, groups and seminars
- To participate in case conferences and work collaboratively as a member of an inter-professional team
- To provide consultation services to TRU employees regarding student-related issues
- To prepare resources for students, and maintain accurate and confidential records
- To engage in service, internally and externally, that benefits the department, TRU, the profession and the Community-at-Large

III. Appointment Criteria

This performance should be recognized by peers at the international level.

IV. Tenure and Promotion Criteria

The general standards for tenure will reflect the member fulfilling the appointment potential in professional role, scholarly activity (for tripartite) and service as outlined in Sections I & II. The general standards for promotion will carry the expectation that the member has exceeded the performance level for the rank currently held. Evidence demonstrating that these performance levels have been met or exceeded may include, but is not limited to, the list of activities in the Collective Agreement and the examples provided in this document.

A. Professional Role Criteria

The candidate must demonstrate effective professional skills in counselling, with an increasing sphere of influence for progression through the ranks. The following table lists the criteria established to evaluate contributions to this role. Items listed are not, however, a checklist that must be completed. Rather, they represent examples of evidence that may be used to demonstrate excellence.

B. Scholarship Criteria (Tripartite)

The candidate must engage in scholarly activity. To evaluate the performance of the candidate, many factors will be considered including those that measure the significance of the contribution. For instance, to measure the impact of publications, the quality of publication (e.g., peer-reviewed), the sphere of influence or level of recognition of the publication (i.e., provincial, national or international), and the candidate's role in the publication (e.g., sole author, 1st author) will be considered. Similarly, for conferences and workshops, the candidate's level of participation (e.g., sole presenter, keynote speaker or participant) will be factored into the evaluation process as well the type of conference (e.g., national, counselling-focused). Dissemination that supports open and collaborative practice, including open access publishing, the development of Open Education Resources and texts, and the creation, documentation and sharing of open process and/or open data will also be considered.

The following table lists the criteria established to evaluate contributions in the area of scholarship. Items listed are not, however, a checklist that must be completed. Rather, they represent examples of evidence that may be used to demonstrate excellence.

C. Service Criteria

The candidate must exhibit consistent contribution to service to the University, to the Profession, and to the Community-at-Large. Weight will be given to the significance of participation and scope of involvement. The following table lists the criteria established to evaluate contributions in the area of service. Items listed are not, however, a checklist that must be completed. Rather, they represent examples of evidence that may be used to demonstrate excellence.
