

Short Bio

Dr. Hasnat Dewan

Dr. Hasnat Dewan has over 25 years of experience in teaching Economics at universities in the USA, Canada, China, and Bangladesh. He is currently a Professor of Economics at TRU. He served as the Chair of Economics and the SoBE International Programs Coordinator. He was recognized for his exemplary leadership with the TRU Chair Leadership Award. He also served as a TRU Senator. Dr. Dewan received over 20 awards for academic, teaching, research, and service excellence. A Fulbright scholar, Dr. Dewan, earned his MA from Yale University and a Ph.D. from The University of Texas at Austin. He was awarded the University Gold Medal for his outstanding results in the B.Sc. (Honours) Exam. His research interests include Sustainable Development, Environmental and Natural Resource Economics, and Banking Crisis. He has published articles in a number of respected journals in his field and contributed chapters to several books. He has presented his work at numerous conferences and seminars in Asia, Europe, Australia, and North America. Dr. Dewan has served on the supervising committees of a number of MBA, MSc, MEd, and Doctoral students.