→ Exchange ISEP students are exempt
- Homestay damage deposit: $500 to TRU (refundable if no damage occurs after departure/room inspection)
- Always inspect your room upon the arrival, note any damage and let your host know asap. Thank you!

Homestay Fees

- The homestay fee: $1000 month/person (first payment due upon arrival)
- STUDENT pays host family directly in cash/cheque or e-transfer every 30 days on the same day
- Ask for a receipt with the date/signature if you would like and please pay on time - thank you!

For example, if you arrived at the home for your first night on August 23 then your fees are due on the 23rd of each month. Your next payment is due on September 23. There is an option to pay till the 1st of the month and then start from the start of the month (approx. 33 CAD/day)

Homestay fees when on vacation

- If you go away on vacation for seven consecutive nights or less, you will pay your normal monthly home stay fee.
- If you are away for eight consecutive nights, or up to 30 nights, your host family will refund you 50% of the prorated daily rate per night away.

For Example:  the fee of $1000 is from January 2022

- Monthly payment is $1,000
- Prorated daily rate is $$1,000/30 = \33.33
- Refund is 50% of $$33.33 = \16.67 per night away
- Total refund: $$16.67 \times$ amount of days way

- It is OK to talk to your family about expenses
- It is OK to say “no thank you” and stay at home; you can explain why (I do not know how to swim; my mom does not want me to ski..)

Issues

- All families can have misunderstandings. Every family is different.
- Talk to your family first. They will appreciate knowing how you feel.
- If talking to your family does not help or is not possible, come see the homestay supervisor or your ISA.
- Do not wait until small problems become bigger.
