

TRU's Sexualized Violence Policy is BRD 25-0.

It applies to all members of the TRU community, and outlines:

- + Definitions of sexualized violence
- + Support for victims/survivors
- + Procedures for responding to reports of sexualized violence
- + Commitment to education and prevention

If you are in crisis or overwhelmed, the Kamloops Sexual Assault Counselling Centre has a 24-hour support line at

1-888-974-7278

Find the policy at tru.ca/sv

TRU is stepping up.

Policy and Supports to Address
Sexualized
Violence

Sexualized Violence

An umbrella term that encompasses any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression physical or psychological in nature committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person's consent.

It varies in severity and takes many forms

"All members of the University Community have the right to work, teach and study in an environment that is free from any form of Sexualized Violence."

Sexualized Violence will not be tolerated at the University."

Support offered:

- + Emotional support and safety planning
- + Academic and housing accommodations
- + Referrals to services on and off campus
- + Information on reporting options
- + Support through reporting processes
- + Education on sexualized violence to the TRU community

Supports available to all TRU faculty, staff, and students regardless of whether a victim/survivor wants to formally report.

Those seeking support are welcome to bring someone to their appointment.

Call 250-828-5023
or email svpr@tru.ca
to book

Prevention and Response Manager