INSTRUCTIONS:

Thompson Rivers University, Open Learning (TRU-OL) is committed to maintaining a high standard of academic integrity during examinations. Students are expected to comply with the following procedures during an examination.

Any irregularities that occur during the examination will be reported to TRU-OL, which reserves the right to reject your examination if there are any irregularities.

If you have questions contact the TRU-OL exams department at:

Email: exams@tru.ca

Phone: 1.800.663.9711 ext. 3 (toll-free within Canada)
1.250.852.6879 (outside of Canada)

Exam Procedures (please read carefully):

- Arrive approximately 20 minutes before the exam session.
- Make sure to take a washroom break before the exam starts. All washroom visits during the exam will be reported to TRU-OL.
- Exams are closed book and three hours in duration, unless specified otherwise in the exam information document.
- You must present valid government issued photo ID with your name and signature or you may not be admitted to the exam. If presenting a driver's license as your ID it must be from the province in which you are taking your exam.
- Rulers, pens, erasers, pencils and pencil sharpeners are permitted for paper exams. You are not permitted to borrow from others during the exam.
- All personal belongings must be placed in a location designated by the invigilator. TRU does not take responsibility for loss of belongings.
- Electronic devices are NOT allowed unless required or specified in the General Information section of the exam information document. This includes, but is not limited to: calculators, cell phones, iPods, iPads, Blackberry Smart Phones, computers, programmable watches, etc. All electronic devices and unnecessary materials, such as notepaper or scratchpads, not required for your exam should be left elsewhere as TRU cannot guarantee their security.
- White out (correction fluid or correction tape) is NOT allowed.
- Smoking, food or drink is NOT allowed, except for clear, unlabeled water bottles (except with medical certificate).
- No disruptive noises and no talking. Students may talk quietly to the invigilator if necessary.
- Exam locations are scent sensitive, so do not wear any perfumes, colognes etc. that have strong scents
- You must sign the attendance register upon receipt of your exam and again upon completion.
- Do not open the examination until instructed to do so. Failure to comply will result in an automatic ZERO.

- All examination papers, answer booklets, supplied materials (used or unused) MUST be handed in to the invigilator upon completion. Failure to return any booklets or exam materials (used or unused) to the invigilator will result in an exam grade of ZERO.
- If there is a problem with the exam:
  - ◆ Note the problem on the exam.
  - ◆ Explain the problem to the invigilator at the end of the exam.
- If you arrive late:
  - ◆ Within the first half hour of the exam you will be permitted to write the exam but no extra time will be given.
  - ◆ After the first half hour you may be permitted to write the exam at the discretion of the invigilator. No extra time will be allowed. The reason for tardiness will be noted.
- If you become ill during your exam:
  - ◆ Notify the invigilator.
  - ◆ Hand in all exam materials immediately.
  - ◆ Obtain medical documentation of illness and contact the TRU-OL Exams department within seven days to discuss your options for a rewrite.
- If you are unable to attend the exam:
  - ◆ Contact the TRU-OL Exams department to determine your options.
- Fire alarm/other emergencies during the exam:
  - ◆ Follow the directions from the invigilator.
  - ◆ Do not talk with other students or you will be dismissed and receive a ZERO.

Academic Misconduct

Academic Misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Cheating, which consists of, but is not limited to:
  - ◆ Obtaining information by fraud or deceit.
  - ◆ Exchanging information with another student.
  - ◆ Using unauthorized materials during an examination.
  - ◆ Representing or impersonating another in the taking of an examination.
  - ◆ Other similar activities.
- Plagiarism, which consists of, but is not limited to:
  - ◆ Presenting someone else's exact words (e.g. direct quotations) or ideas as though they are your own.
  - ◆ Paraphrasing without acknowledging the source.
  - ◆ Failing to reference the source of facts, which are not accepted as general knowledge.

Penalty for Academic Misconduct:

- Students found committing Academic Misconduct will not be permitted to finish their exam and will be instructed to leave the exam building immediately. Such students will receive a ZERO on the exam and therefore a failing grade for the course.
- Students committing Academic Misconduct will be reported to the Academic Integrity Committee of Thompson Rivers University, where other penalties may be assigned including, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion.
